

UNIVERSITÉ PARIS-DAUPHINE
Faculty Position in International Economics
Full Professor

UNIVERSITE PARIS-DAUPHINE invites applications for Full Professor position in International Economics.

JOB QUALIFICATION: The research topic and teaching area of applicant has to be in International Economics. The successful candidate should have a well-established record of research and publications and is expected to teach at the graduate and undergraduate levels, to supervise doctoral students, to be committed to a state-of-the-art research program and to provide senior leadership in the department.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT: The successful candidate will integrate DIAL, which is a joint research unit between Université Paris-Dauphine (LEDa) and the French Institute for Development Research (IRD). DIAL develops its research in two directions: Development Microeconomics and International Economics. International Economics topics include: international movements of goods, services or factors; international aid; development finance; poverty and inequality impacts of openness. More details about the research centre can be found at <http://www.dial.prd.fr/>

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY: For information, Université Paris-Dauphine is part of the new excellence research network PSL* together with some of the best French Grandes Ecoles. PSL* is supported by massive public funds and is aimed to become a leading research institution.

Salary is competitive at the European Level.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: The job openings will be published on the web site of the Ministry of Higher Education by February 23, 2012. Candidates shall follow the centralized application process, see here.

Candidates can signal their interest in the positions by sending an email to recruiting.econ.dauphine@gmail.com, including a complete vita and a job market paper.

More information can be obtained from:

Pr. Philippe De Vreyer
Université Paris-Dauphine
Place du Maréchal de Lattre de Tassigny
75775 Paris Cedex 16 France
philippe.devreyer@dauphine.fr